

MITCHELL INSTITUTE SENIOR FELLOW

Lt Gen Robert Elder, USAF (Ret.), is currently a member of the George Mason University where he is a research professor with the Volgenau School of Engineering. Elder began his work at George Mason University following his retirement from military service as the Commander of 8th Air Force and U.S. Strategic Command's Global Strike Component. He currently conducts research in the areas of command and control, deterrence, escalation control involving international competition short of armed conflict, crisis management, and international actor decision-making. General Elder served as the Central Command Air Forces Deputy Commander for Operation Enduring Freedom, Air Operations Center Commander and Deputy Air Component Commander for Operation Iraqi Freedom, and Commandant of the Air War College. He was the first commander of Air Force Network Operations and led the development of the cyberspace mission for the Air Force. He received his Doctorate in Engineering from the University of Detroit.

---