

MITCHELL INSTITUTE SENIOR FELLOW

John F. Lehman, served as a Professional Staff Member for the Senate Armed Services Committee from January 2015 to November 2018. Mr. Lehman's portfolio included Air Force and Naval Aviation programs and policies. Prior to the SASC, Mr. Lehman worked as an investment banker in the Aerospace and Defense group at Evercore, where he advised clients on mergers, acquisitions and corporate strategy.

From 2003 to 2011, Mr. Lehman served as a Naval Flight Officer in the United States Navy. As an EA-6B Prowler Electronic Countermeasures Officer, he deployed as a member of the VAQ-141 Shadowhawks aboard the USS Theodore Roosevelt in support of operations in Iraq, Afghanistan and the Pacific area of operations. His shore tour was on the Secretary of the Navy's staff in the White House Liaison Office.

Mr. Lehman received his B.A. in Diplomatic History from the University of Pennsylvania and M.B.A. from the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth. He lives with his wife, Hilary and three children, Lucy, Jack, and George in Washington, DC.
